BARCELONA FRINGE #3 2026

IN ENGLISH

Welcome to the third Barcelona Fringe Festival, a giant collaboration between the biggest comedy brands, venues, and comedians of Barcelona! We received over 450 applications from performers across the globe and selected over 200 shows in a variety of genres. This booklet contains all the information you need to plan your Fringe.

To reflect the multilingual nature of Barcelona, you can see shows in English, Spanish, Catalan, French and Italian. You'll find everything from international superstars to local comics performing their solo shows, plus showcases of homegrown and visiting talent, and other fun format shows.

In short:
there's something for everyone!

BARCELONA FRINGE #3 2026

EN ESPAÑOL

¡Bienvenidos a la tercera edición del Barcelona Fringe Festival, una gran colaboración entre las marcas, los locales y los cómicos más importantes de Barcelona! Hemos recibido más de 450 solicitudes de artistas de todo el mundo y seleccionamos más de 200 espectáculos de diversos géneros. Este folleto contiene toda la información que necesitas para planificar tus días en el Fringe.

Para reflejar el carácter multilingüe de Barcelona, podrás ver espectáculos en inglés, español, catalán, francés o italiano. Aquí encontrarás desde superestrellas internacionales hasta comediantes locales que hacen sus espectáculos en solitario, además de exhibiciones del talento local y visitante y otros espectáculos divertidos.

En resumen:
¡hay algo para todos!

WORKSHOPS

If laughing from your seat isn't enough for you, The Comedy Schoolhouse at the Barceona Fringe offers a range of different workshops led by a selection of our best comedians for a chance to learn some comedy yourself.

Intro to clown: the Rob Duncan Method

Monday 9th November 13:30 → 16:30

An introduction to clown through the eyes of Rob Duncan. A playful exploration of stupidity, surprise and the pleasure of making people laugh. What is the Rob Duncan Method? Come along and we'll find out.

Finding Your Voice with Teddy Hall

Tuesday 10th November 13:30 → 16:30

Are you performing in comedy (or other arts) and struggling to find your voice? Do you wish that your comedy felt less formulaic and more unique to you? This workshop is designed to help comedians and the comedy-curious get a little bit closer to finding their own unique comedic voice.

Introduction to ClownProv with Carlos Sandin and Fred Newnes

Wednesday 11th November 13:30 → 16:30

Learn how to integrate clown skills into your improv practice to become a more confident, present, and committed performer, under the guidance of the UK's only clownprov* act, The Supermalts.

What's in a puppet? A hand with Madeleine Tyler

Thursday 12th November 13:30 → 16:30

2026 has become a year of emerging puppet theatre and media... Do you ever wonder what goes into making live puppetry so magical? It's more work than you think, but anyone can be a puppeteer and anything can be a puppet!

Hosting Essentials with Hector Ayala

Friday 13th November 13:30 → 16:30

How a comedy show is hosted is often the differentiator between a memorable show and one forgotten by the audience. In this workshop, comedians will navigate in detail what it takes to be a successful MC.

All workshops will be held at The Clubhouse Laietana.

CITY SPOTLIGHT

Barcelona is Spain's most visited city for a reason! The Catalan capital is awash in history, architecture, culture, and cuisine. In between all of the Fringe shows, don't forget to enjoy this wonderful city.

FOOD

Located on the Mediterranean coast, Barcelona's cuisine traces its roots from around the world. Rich, volcanic soil produces mouthwatering tomatoes, peppers, and citrus. The bounty of the land and sea make their way onto our plates. Here are some dishes you won't want to miss!

- COFFEE: Barcelona is well known for its speciality coffee shops. Dotted around the city, you can grab a café con leche for breakfast or an after-lunch cortado.
  /Hit up Coto Coffee for takeaway speciality coffee in the heart of the Old City.
- TAPAS: Tapas are small, shareable plates. Make some friends at Fringe and try croquetas, tortilla de patata, pimientos de Padrón, and pa amb tomàquet.
  /avoid the touristy spots in Plazas and Las Ramblas and check out the side streets.
- JAMÓN: Jamón is a dry cured leg of ham. The best is the Jamón ibérico, which has more fat allowing it to age longer and for a deeper flavor to develop.
  /The best of the best is Jamón Ibérico de Bellota, where the pigs eat a diet of nutty acorns.
- PAELLA: While this dish originates in Valencia, Barcelona is home to many pans of this traditional slow cooked rice meal. Try paella de mariscos with a mix of Mediterranean seafood or tastes from the mountains with rabbit, snails, pork and more.
  /An authentic paella takes 20-30 minutes to prepare, so be patient!
- MENÚ DEL DÍA: A full 3 course meal with a drink included is an economical way to eat out in Spain. Available weekdays at lunchtime.
  /Why don't you try one of Clubhouse Kitchen's hand-stretched, New York-style pizzas !

HISTORY

Barcelona traces its roots all the way to Roman times and remnants of the ancient and medieval ancestors are still spread around the city. You can see 4 surviving sections of the Roman Wall from the 4th century, columns from the 1st century temple of Agustus, and an entire 18th century neighborhood preserved in the Born Cultural Center.

/Look up the Museu Historia de Barcelona (MUHBA) to find historical sites near you!

ARCHITECTURE

Famed architect Antoni Gaudí left his mark on Barcelona with Modernist marvels like Sagrada Familia, Park Güell, and Casa Batlló. But don't forget other gems like the Hospital Sant Pau and Palau de la Música Catalana, UNESCO World Heritage sites designed by Lluís Domènech i Montaner. Tickets to go inside often sell out in advance, but you can explore the exteriors or take a guided tour.

/Be careful to only buy tickets and experiences from official websites!

SAFETY

We want everyone to have a good time in Barcelona and part of that is ensuring everyone's safety. The warnings and stories you've heard about pickpocketing are true, but a little preparedness goes a long way. Thieves in Barcelona are looking for easy targets – drunk or careless people who don't have their belongings secured.

/Make sure you keep your valuables in your front pockets, wear purses and bags around your chest, and don't take your phone out on the street.
